Editorial

by Tom Nash

Last week's Editorial brought forth many denouncements from the community. Among those were: "He should have done a little more investigating." "His facts are not correct." "What is he crusading about?" "We have given support to other organizations, and now at the end of the year we have no budget left to expend on these people," etc.

To respond to some of the criticism that I have been the recipient of, may I inform the citizens of Seaside that I have no intentions of becoming a crusader, for everyone is aware that crusaders get crudified. Even the late Andrew E. Barrigan was one of those when he took an unpopular position in a recall matter and lost half of his advertising lineage.

However, "To Thine Own Self Be True, And As Surely As The Night Must Follow The day, Thou Canst Be False To Any Man." Someone must focus the attention of the community on inadequacies that exist in the community and any newspaper that shirks this duty is unfit to be supported.

The Seaside POST and News-Sentinel has no intention of being a "middle of the roader," taking no sides with issues that are of prime concern to the community and if the shoe gets tight, corrective action must be taken to prevent permanent damage to the feet.

The United Crusade called and stated they had given YFAY $1,000 last year to purchase equipment. If YAFA "did not use this money to buy equipment for the football team what happened to it? We understood that $784 was used to purchase jerseys?"

I contacted YAFA about the matter and they responded with the following information: "The United Crusade did give us money, but they stipulated that none of the money could be used for any contact sport. Football is a contact sport, therefore we used this money to purchase uniforms for the 15 girl's softball teams, and informed the United Crusade by sending them a copy of the bill of sale.

"The only organization that has helped us has been the Bing Crosby Golf Tournament. They have been very helpful, and we appreciate it very much."

Football is a seasonal sport, therefore it is nearing the end of the year before emphasis is placed on this matter, and even though the merchants and business men were not aware of the need at the beginning of the year, your help is needed now.

Last Sunday, September 30, the 8-9-10-year-olds of the YAFA teams played Ft. ORD's 8-9-10-year-olds. The results of the game was Seaside 32, Fort Ord 0. Saturday the young adult team is playing Soledad. At this writing the results of the game have not come in, but if they do as well as they did last yeat, they will win.

I have contacted Ed Fisher, Security Savings, to secure permission to place the funds raised there. A citizens committee, using the three signature method, is being set up to purchase the uniforms.

Any person desiring to contribute to the fund may do so, by making your check or money order out to: "YAFA FOOTBALL UNIFORM FUND", and mail it to P.O. BOX 736, Seaside, CA 93955.

In addition, we are launching a live radio remote broadcast at The Fireside Hof Brau Restaurant, 1996 Fremont Street, Seaside, beginning Wednesday, October 17, in which we will present the "cool sound of jazz", with interviews of guests in order to raise funds for this project. We are hoping each merchant and businessman will take a spot on this show to promote your business. The time of the broadcast will be from 6 - 7 p.m. nightly and you are invited to participate. Our special guests for the initial broadcast will be members of the Seaside Kiwanas Club. We are hoping you will honor us with your presence.

Regardless of how much we critize, rant, rave, denounce or bellow, there are two irrefutable facts that we must deal with. Fact number one is we have four teams with inadequate football equipment. Fact number two is that we have had to turn away over 100 young people because of the lack of equipment.

PT&T Won't Accept Unstamped Mail

Pacific Telephone has announced that it will stop accepting mail with postage due, which could save some $140,000 by the end of the year.

Notification will be included with telephone monthly bills being released to customers, according to Jack Head, P.T.&T. Manager.

He said "the action is being taken against the 2.3 percent of our six million customers, who illegally engage in the 'eight-cent ripoff' -- the deliberate refusal to put a stamp on envelopes containing the utility payment."

There has been a 30 percent increase in the number of offenders in the first four months of 1973, reported Head.

Company projections are that by the end of the year, it would be paying some $140,000 in postage due unless it stopped accepting such mail.

"Our customers should not be put in a position of subsidizing postage-due mail expense of those offenders," said Head.

Mail payments addressed to the company without the proper postage will be returned to the sender by the U.S. Post Office.

Mail payments without a return address will be sent to the dead letter office.

Authorities point out that failure to put postage on mail with intent to avoid payment of lawful postage is subject to a fine up to $300.

Pacific Telephone considered but rejected a number of alternatives before deciding to refuse postage-due mail. All would have involved costs which have to be shared by ratepayers, said Head.

He acknowledged that once in a while "some people honestly forget to put a stamp on an envelope, or on occasion a stamp may fall off while it is enroute.

The company announcement included with monthly bills states: "Our bill return evvelope has space for your return address. Please be sure to include your address in the upper left hand corner so if anything goes wrong, at least the payment will get back to you."

Concert Is This Sunday At MPC

The Monterey County Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Haymo Taeuber, will present the opening concert of the 1973-74 season this Sunday, October 14 at Monterey Peninsula College in the Gym-Auditorium; Monday, October 15 in Sunset Auditorium, Carmel; and Tuesday, Oct. 16 in Salinas. Miss Sapieyevski was born in Warsaw, Poland and made her debut at the age of 16 in Gdansk (Danzig.) After further studies at the Gdansk Conservatory of Music and many successful concerts both in recital and with orchestras, Miss Sapieyevski came to the American continent for further studies. She was awarded scholarships at Juilliard School of Music, at Aspen and at Tanglewood.

In the United States, Miss Sapieyevski has not only concertized extensively as a solo recitalist, but appeared five

Waldie To Speak At MPC

Rep. Jerome Waldie, D-Antioch, will talk at Monterey Peninsula College this Thursday, October 11, at 1:30 p.m. in the Fireplace Lounge of the Student Union. A Democratic contender for his party's nomination for governor of California, Waldie is deeply concerned about conservation of the natural resources and the preservation of the natural beauty of our state.

Waldie has attracted national attention to this concern through his walking tour across California.

In the evening, the Democratic Women's Club of Monterey County will host Waldie at a dinner at Sunset Cultural Center in Carmel.

Anyone unable to attend either event can see Waldie on the Dick Bragg show later in the evening.

For further information, phone 373-3359.

County Warns Of Free Holiday Offer

Here is a Consumer Alert Warning from the Monterey County Department of Weights, Measures and Consumer Affairs: Residents of Monterey County are receiving by mail, form letters announcing they have been computer selected to receive a Holiday for Two eigher in Nevada or Florida. There is a service charge of $15.00 to register the vacation certificate. Included in the offer is a "treasure chest" of gifts.

A spokesman for the Attorney General in San Francisco has stated that an investigation is being conducted into the activities of the company handling the mass-mailing to vacation "winners". It is believed that the company is connected with a land development and promotion group.

The attorney General's spokeman noted that glowing promises of free vacations at resorts are often just come-ons promoted by land companies to sell almost worthless pieces of desert or swamp property.

Anyone receiving the current "treasure chest" mailing from an out-of-state location is requested to send it to the District Attorney's office, P.O. Box 1369, Salinas, CA. 93901, Consumer Fraud Division or Department of Weights, Measures and Consumer Affairs, P.O. Box 302, Salinas, CA. 93901.

Deadline Is Near

State Controller, Houston I. Flournoy, reminds all homeowners 62 years of age and over, that the October 15 deadline for filing 1973 property tax assistance claims is rapidly approaching.

More than 282,000 claims have been received since the filing season began May 16, Flournoy said. Senior citizens who have already filed claims for this year need not refile another claim.

Approximately $59 million is assistance payments were made in 1972 on 292,000 claims. The law provices for reimbursement of up to 95 percent of property taxes paid, depending upon the income of the individual.

To be eligible for property tax assistance, claimants must be age 62 or over, own and reside in their home, have paid taxes for the current year and have income of $10,000 or less.

Requests for information and claim forms may be made to any Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance branch office or to Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance, P.O. Box 1588, Sacramento, CA 95807.

Cranston Says Equal Employment Must Become A Reality

U.S. Senator Alan Cranston (D., Calif.) has called on government, business and labor "to meet their Constitutional obligations to provide equal employment opportunities to all minority groups."

"The mandate of the civil rights movements of the 1950s and 60s, the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the 1972 Equal Employment Opportunity Act and scores of court decisions upholding the principle of equal employment opportunity simply have not yet been fully met for many Spanish-speaking and black workers," Cranston said in a speech prepared for delivery on the Senate floor.

"Unemployment among Chicanos continues at more than eight percent. Among minority youth it is 30 percent.

"Equal employment opportunity is mandated by the law and by the Constitution. Yet, it has not been realized for far too many Americans.

"Jobs--any kind of work--is the first part of the problem, but that is only the beginning.

"The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) reports that 70 percent of the employed Chicanos work in the lowest-paying occupations.

"That is why a study also showed that the median income for all Spanish-surnamed families was $7,500--$3,000 less than that of Anglo families."

Cranston is a member of the Senate Labor Committee, which deals with employment, job training, employment discrimination and related issues.

The Senator said that "some progress is being made in the field of federal employment, although much, much more remains to be done".

He said Equal Employment Opportunity Act amendments which he authored with Senators Edward Kennedy (D., Mass.) and Peter Dominick (R., Colo.) in 1972 gave the Civil Service Commission important new powers to improve federal employment opportunities for minorities.

"The latest government-wide minority employment survey statistics, completed through November, 1972, indicate that minority group Americans now hold more federal jobs as well as a greater proportion of the total jobs than at any previous time.

"Of equal significance, the number of middle and upper level jobs held by minorities is also at an all-time high. It is crucial that real job advancement opportunities be opened up. The 1972 law calls for that, and I am going to do everything I can to make sure that it is enforced.

"These gains occurred while overall full-time federal employment declined by almost 32,000 jobs. In California, although we lost 6,500 federal jobs in 1972, minority employment increased in virtually every grade category.

"What is more important is that we have set up the machinery in the Civil Service Commission and through the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to make more progress.

NEW ASSIGNMENT -- Monterey resident, Constance E. Webber, assistant manager with Security Pacific Bank, has transferred from bank's Northern California Headquarters in San Francisco to Monterey Branch. Native of Santa Ana, and graduate of University of Southern California, she joined bank in 1970 as personnel receptionist at Highland & Hollywood Branch.

PG&E A-Plant Cost Less Than Oil, Gas

California's first commercial sized nuclear electric generating unit, located at Pacific Gas and Electric Eompany's Humboldt Bay Power Plant near Eureka, is completing 10 years of successful operation with current fuel costs lower than those for fuel oil or natural gas.

Electricity produced with $2 worth of nuclear fuel at Humboldt Bay would have a fuel cost of $4 at a power plant fueled with natural gas and $7.75 if it were produced with oil at current prices.

The unit, dedicated September 23, 1963, is being refueled now for the eighth time. Approximately a fourth of the reactor's nuclear core is replaced at each refueling.

PG&E records show the 63,000-kilowatt unit has established an excellent record of availability for service.

The unit's safety record has been recognized by a recent $49,000 refund the company on its nuclear insurance as a result of 10 years without a single claim arising from nuclear causes. The insuring firms said the safety record of nuclear power plants is unequalled by that of any other industry.

During the 10 years of operation the Humboldt Bay reactor has used only 53 tons of uranium dioxide nuclear fuel to provide electricity enough for more than 61,000 average homes over that period.

Generating the same amount of electricity in an efficient fossil-fueled turbine-generator would require 6 million barrells, or 252 million gallons of oil, PG&E engineers estimated. Delivery of that amount of oil would require 20,160 railroad tank cars, which would make up a train 172 miles long.

The nuclear fuel for 10 years could be delivered in 11 truckloads.

Current neclear industry cost figures confirm the 1963 dedication promise of Robert H. Gerdes, then PG&E president and now chairman of the company's executive committee. Noting that nuclear power cost more than fossil-fueled power at the time, Gerdes said, "We expect to break the economic barrier", to make nuclear power competitive.

While it has been producing electricity, the nuclear unit has also been a training facility for PG&E technicians and supervisors. Utilities in other parts of the country also have sent employees to Humboldt Bay for training.

The Humboldt Bay nuclear plant was among the earliest built in the United States, the second on the PG&E system and holds Atomic Energy Commission operating license No. 7. It was preceded by the PG&E - General Electric Company small Vallecitos plant, in Alameda county, which operated from 1957 until 1967 before being retired. Holder of AEC license No. 1, it, too, had a perfect nuclear safety record during its 10 years of operation.

Peninsula CFC Begins

Major General Robert G. Gard Jr., Fort Ord's new commanding general, recently announced the start of the 1973-74 Combined Federal Campgian (CFC) for Monterey County. As overall chairman of this year's fund drive, General Gard expressed his belief in the combined method of donating to charitable agencies and he stated that "this campaign has more than just my formal support, it has my totally enthusiastic support."

CFC consolidates the dollar appeals of the United Fund, American Red Cross, National Health Agencies and the International Service Agencies into one fund drive for all federal personnel. One of the major results of this type of unified campaign is dramatically lower fund-raising costs.

"In the short time I have been on the Monterey Peninsula," Gerneral Gard said, "I have seen the great spirit of cooperation that exists between the civilian population and the military, a spirit that is exemplified by the work that both are doing to raise money for our local charitable agencies. I am happy to be apart of this effort to hopefully surpass last year's donation of $212,000, and I urge all our military and civilian personnel to give their fair share."

COASTAL CITIES

The affects of Proposition 20 (California Costal Initiative) on all Coastal Cities are not necessarily beneficial. As a matter of fact, the TAXPAYERS, exclusively in coastal cities are bearing exhorbitant costs that inland cities do not share.

The State Gasoline Tax, the Motor Vehicle License Fees, the Trailer Coach Fees, State Liquor License Fees, and State Highway Maintenance Payments are just a few of the subventions and grants available to all cities. There are other types of State Programs designed for specific problems of localities. A number of years ago cities in the state paralleling or being traversed by railroad tracks faced a unique safety problem. These cities lobbied the State Legislature for special assistance and as a result, the State adopted legislation appropriating money and establishing a formula to help those cities construct overpasses, underpasses, and other safety devices regulating vehicular traffic across railroad tracks. Cities, therefore, with this problem have and are receiving financial assistance. Other cities throughout the State are ineligible. There are other examples of special local problems.

For almost one year, Seaside's Laguna Grande Project has been delayed by Proposition 20 and may or may not be approved eventually. In the interim the City of Salinas broke ground last month on its 4 million dollar dity sponsored convention center. Salinas' project has been in the planning stage almost as long as Seaside's Laguna Grande Project. However, this point is very significant - the delays of Laguna Grande Project due directly to the affects of Proposition 20 have cost over $100,000 and additional expenses are accruing daily! Salinas taxpayers are not subjected to these type of costs!

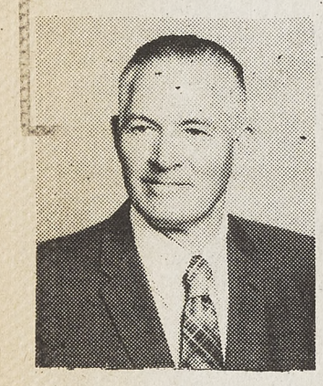
With the passage of the California Coastal Initiative (Proposition 20) this past year, the beach area, and especially public access to these recreational spots of the entire Monterey Peninsula are being emphasized. Every day new demands for public access are being imposed upon coastal communities.

With the recent passage of the Property Tax Relief Act of 1972 (SB 90) restricting local jurisdictions from increasing their property tax levels, and with the new emphasis being placed upon public usage of the Coastal Zone, the State must be convinced of the equity in financial support to Coastal Communities. An equitable formula for State Financial participation can be prepared which will apply to all Coastal Communities.

A am suggesting that all of the people of the State of California be afforded the opportunity of sharing in the cost of coastal preservation and maintenance for their pleasure, through a State-WIDE Tax subsidy to the governmental agencies within the Coastal Zone.

As I See It

by Mel Vercoe



One of the great lessons that has come our of the various corruption and deception investigations now going on in the world's corruption capital is that the Constitutional safeguards that were intended to deter such things are not working. Theoretically, none of these things should have taken place under the original intent of the fathers who are generally referred to as the founding fathers but who would likely deny any kinship if they could see what is taking place today.

I doubt that George Washington would have lied to us about the bombing of Cambodia. Even Lincoln, whose ideals led us into the terribly costly Civil War, probably would not have used deception to lead us into the Indochina war, and certainly would not have expanded it into two other countries, all without the approval of Congress. Jefferson and several others would turn over if they could see even just a glimpse of how our national elections have become circuses and how our nation's business is conducted in Washington.

But that is because they are behind the times. They would have a viewpoint that we lack, because we have come to accept corruption and deception amongst our leadership as quite commonplace. Yet, in my humble opinion, we should not accept such things, and if we really care one way or the other we must accept the reality that it is not enough to expose wrongdoings three or four years after the damage is done and maybe threaten then to impeach a questionable leader.

Even if we have to amend the Constitution and put some teeth in it and clarify it so its meanings cannot be twisted, I think that would be preferable to what is going on today. I can't believe that we can survive if in our apathy and greed we continue to be happy with leadership, for example, that is dedicated to itself first and to its country second and willing to employ every subterfuge to satisfy its ego or paranoia as the case may be.

Crocker Bank Starting New Trust Service

Trust department services for accounts as small as $10,000 have been announced by Crocker Bank.

John J. Downes, a Crocker executive vice president and head of the 19-office trust system, said the new service will be called "Minitrust" and was designed for modest-sized accounts.

"Crocker Bank's offering of this private trust service is in response to a widespread demand of persons concerned with the preservation, management and disposition of their funds.

"Previously, corporate trustees generally have been compelled to limit their private trust duties and responsibilities and their substantial administration expenses," Downes said.

"But by standardizing the Minitrust agreement, by limiting services to those established in the agreement, and by requiring that customers direct the investment of their trusts, we are able to offer, at reduced fees, the essential benefits of typical private trusts," he said.

Among those benefits are professional custody and management of trust property, privacy afforded by a confidential relationship with the trustee, the opportunity to dispose of property upon death by means of a private agreement rather than by a will which would subject the property to probate proceedings, complete authority of the trustee to act on the customer's behalf with respect to the trust property in the event of accident or serious illness, and professional investment services for the trust property if invested in common trust funds maintained by Crocker Bank.

Separate trust forms are available for those who wish to deposit separate property or community property in their Minitrust.

Downes also said that additional deposits of $1,000 or more may be made at any time to these accounts, and that at any time the customer may withdraw all or any part of the trust property or revoke the trust entirely.

He said that net income from the trust will be deposited into the customer's Crocker Bank savings account or free checking account. Income deposits will be shown on regular bank statements and on Minitrust statements, he said.

When the account is terminated on death, the trust property is distributed to the beneficiaries specified by the customer.

Barbeque To Honor Camacho Scheduled

A steak barbecue honoring Julian Camacho will be held at the Monterey Fairgrounds in Monterey on Sunday, October 21, between 1 and 5 p.m.

"Ourpurpose is to show appreciation for the fine campaign Julian conducted last year and to encourage him to be a candidate again next year," said Sam Karas, Monterey businessman who is organizing the event on behalf of a group known as Friends of Julian Camacho. "We'd also like people who don't know Julian to have a chance to meet him and get acquainted with his stand on issues."

Camacho ran for Congress on the Democratic ticket in 1972 and is reportedly considering another try for the office in 1974.

The menu will include steak, bread, beans, and salad. Tickets are $3, but children under 12 who are accompanied by their parents will be served hot dogs free.

Entertainment is being arranged by Evelyn Bindel. Persons desiring tickets may obtain them by calling 624-7190 or 372-0505, or by writing Box 1976, Monterey. Central locations for tickets are being arranged and will be announced at a later date.

Committee members for the barbecue are Frank and Marion LaRosa, Norman and Meredith Baldwin, Manny Sanchez, Ruth Robey, Jen and Richard Edwards. Volunteer helpers and ticket sellers will be welcomed.

Other classes available to the community are the Drama Workshop, held every Saturday morning from 10 - 12 a.m. at the Seaside Youth Center. This workshop is open to youngsters ages 7 - 14 and will include skits and pantomimes.

Both guys and gals are invited to participate in this innovative combination of interpretive and modern dance to be led by Mrs. Betty Sapp.

Letter To The Editor

Editor: Demand is made for $2-1/2 Billion in reparations for North Vietnam. We don't have it, and if we give it we will have to borrow the funds and pay 5-3/4% interest. This will cost you and me $143,750,000.00 per year in increased taxes. What in heck is going on? Did we win a peace or buy a peace?

Sincerely,

C. C. Moseley,
Glendale, CA

Sculpture Exhibit Is Underway

During the month of October, the Seaside Art Commission is showing sculpture in its showcases by Richard Lutz of Pacific Grove.

Richard, or "Rich", Lutz is a graduate of Eastern Washington State College at Cheney, Washington, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in education, with sculpture as his major study. While in college he was largely infuenced by his instructor, Joseph Daugherty, in the basic principles of sculpture and art. This resulted in Rick's early works being non-objective in style; his mediums were primarily wood and stone, but some welded steel as well. After college he was drafted into the army in 1971.

During the last four months of his military duty he was commissioned to create an eight-foot figure of a drill sergeant for the army. The completion of this assignment became the main part of his military duty.

Rick has exhibited in the annual Northwest United States Show in Spokane, Washington (1971), Le Coeur d'Alene, Idaho (1971), a one-man show in the Fort Ord Arts and Crafts are gallery (1973), AND AT THE Monterey County Fair in 1973. He is currently the sculpture instructor in the Arts and Crafts shop at Fort Ord, California.

Meeting Is Scheduled

The monthly business meeting of the Non Commissioned Officer Ladies Auxiliary, Seaview Chapter, will be held at the Fort Ord NCO Club on October 10, at 7:30. All wives of members of the NCOA are invited. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Dance Troupe Is Described

By Ammed Sekou Toure, President of Republic of Guinea

Created some 24 years ago Les Ballets Africains have become, with Independence, the Republic of Guinea's National Ensemble.

Their mission is to reveal to the world the African and the Guinean societies' traditional expression of cultural values.

As far as we are concerned, authenticity is synonymous with reality.

Since folklore is a gathering of traditions, poems, songs, dances and popular legends of one country, it logically reflects this country's way of life. Our dances thus become necessary; they are vital, imperious and direct. In this case, they are quite meaningful and the Ballet which comes from these dances is--at this stage of our evolution--based uniquely on folklore.

The artists of Les Ballets Africains are anonymous artists, performing in a troupe within which there are no stars or featured performers.

Just as much as the peasant from the plains of the Tinkisso, the cattle raiser from the high mountains of the Fonta Djalton, the sailor of the Simandou, the coffee grower from Mancenta, the soldier, the fisherman from the coast, the social worker, the clerk, the housewife or the student, the artist of Les Ballets Africains contributes to the national reconstruction, the rehabilitation of the African personality, the emancipation of African people and peace and friendship between all people.

These artists were not trained at the Paris or Vienna Opera.

Their choreographic initiation originates from their authentic African education and from their own artistic discoveries.

The singers know nothing but the popular songs of Africa as they were sung in their distant villages.

The call of the tam-tam, the sound of the monostring guitar, the balafon, the cora and the Peulh flute bring nostalgia to their hearts and carry them in a whirl of magic rhythms.

times on the "Keyboard Masters" series on WNYC, New York. She has participated in three major music festivals in the U.S., in Aspen, at the Berkshire Music Center in Tanglewood, and at the Temple University Festival in Philadelphia. She also performed in Europe at the "Settembre Musicale de Portofino" in Italy and Schloss Elmau in Germany. Among the interesting events of her summer concert tour were an appearance with the Groningen Symphony in Holland, recitals in Italy, and a special recital at the birthplace of Frederick Chopin in Zelazowa Wola near Warsaw, Several new members have joined the Symphony Orchestra under Haymo Taeuber's direction and audiences will particularly enjoy the "Pastorale" Symphony with its various movements illustrating scenes of the countryside, the brook, the merry gathering of country people, the thunderstorm and the shepherd's song, giving many orchestra members opportunities for solo passages.

Tickets for the concerts are available at the usual Symphony outlets in each area, Abinante's, Monterey; Carmel Music, Carmel; Lily Walker, Pacific Grove; Community Services, MPC; and at recreation offices on military posts. Further information may be obtained by calling the Symphony Office, 624-8511.

Golf Tourney Scheduled At Rancho Canada

It's that time of year again! We're talking about the Fifth Annual Celebrity Golf Tournament to be held the weekend of November 17 and 18th at our newest world famous Rancho Canada.

This is a big draw to help buy athletic equipment and sponsor youth sports activities on the Peninsula and some of the notables already signed for this event are: Joe Rudi, San Bando and Rollie Fingers of the Oakland Athletics. From the San Francisco Giants Bobby Bonds and Ron Bryant will be on hand, as will other sports greats. To please the feminine gallery Doug McClure, Ron Ely, Efrem Zimbalist and William Windom were among the first to accept invitations to participate in the tournament.

John Logan, Promotion Committee Chairman, explained "Last year our field was 265; this year it will be 300 with 150 players on each course at Rancho Canada for both days. For the $100 dollar fee, which includes all social functions and green charges this is the big chance for the average golfer to play with a celebrity and a good chance to bring home one of the many very fine prizes offered to various winners."

3 A's Vie For Awards

Aside from the usual accolades that accompany a championship season, three highly coveted individual awards are well within range for a trio of Oakland A's players as the world champions head into the final stages of regular season play.

Reggie Jackson is a strong contender for the American League Most Valuable Player, Jim (Catfish) Hunter is among the frontrunners for the CyYoung Award and Vida Blue has a good shot at The Sporting News Comeback Player of the Year honors.

Jackson was leading the majors in runs batted in with 113 and the American League in home runs with 31 going into the final week of the season. He was also the club's leading percentage hitter among the regulars with a .295 average, had scored 97 runs and stolen 22 bases.

Jackson looks upon his 1973 accomplishments as more satisfying than in 1969 when he clubbed 47 homers and drove in 118 runs, "because this has been in a winning cause."

Had he not missed 13 games after pulling a hamstring September 8, Reggie's credentials would have been even more impressive.

Hunter, who has won 21 games for the third straight year, will be the American League's top percentage pitcher by season's end. The durable righthander had a 21-4 record going into the final week despite missing a possible six starts during a month-long recuperation from a fractured thumb sustained as a starter in the July 24th All-Star game.

Still, Hunter managed to put together a string of 13 straight victories before suffering a loss September 9, his first since May 29. His performances for the season include three shutouts, a one-hitter, two three-hitters, a four-hitter and a five-hitter. He also had a streak of 28-1/3 scoreless innings.

Hunter, who was 2-0 against Cincinnati in the 1972 World Series, is the first A's pitcher to win as many as 20 games in consecutive seasons since 1933 when Lefty Grove was winding up his streak of seven 20-win seasons.

Blue, whose lengthy holdout last season contributed to a lacklustre 6-10 record, came back with his famed Blue Blazer to become the A's third 20-game winner in 1973. His 20th win came September 23 against the White Sox as the A's clinched the American League East title.

Enroute to his 20-9 record going into the final week, Blue spun off four shutouts and whiffed 155 batters.

Space Fair Scheduled

October 27 and 28 will mark the fourteenth annual Space Fair at Point Mugu, featuring the nation's largest military air-show.

More than 100,000 visitors are expected to attend the aerial exhibition held at the Headquarters of the Pacific Missile Range, located at Point Mugu between Santa Monica and Oxnard.

Twice-a-day airshows will be headlined by the Army's parachute team, the Golden Knights, and Formula I midget racers in the Quaker State Grand Prix Race.

Although it is regretted that the Navy's famed "Blue Angels" will not appear, this year's airshow promises to be as exciting as ever and will include several new aerial acts.

Performing will be nine of the nation's best aerobatic pilots, including Ken Brock in his gyrocopter, Carolyn Salisbury, Bob Hoover with his P-51 and Shrike Commander, Cliff Howard and his T-Minus II, Gordon McCollom (a wing walker), Jim Lasley, Art Scholl, Mira Slovak, and the Red Knights, a three plane aerobatic team flying Pitts Specials.

The military show includes real air-to-air Sidewinder missiles, rockets, 20mm cannon, photoflash flares, and a short field, Jet Assisted Take Off (JATO) of a C-130 aircraft.

A half-mile long carnival midway, full of games, rides and refreshments, will provide fun for all ages.

Space Fair 1973 will also feature hundreds of aviation and military exhibits in one of the station's huge hangars. This year for the first time in Space Fair history, there will be an exhibit of items from Antarctica.

Sponsored by the Navy commands at Point Mugu and Port Hueneme as a military open house, Space Fair 1973 is open to the public at no charge. Contributions of $1 each are accepted for grandstand seats. Proceeds go to the Navy Relief Society to assist needy Navy and Marine Corps families.

Top NCO At Fort Ord Is Honored

Being "Best" is nothing new for Specialist Five Peter Burr, a clinical specialist in Silas B. Bays Army Hospital's intensive care ward.

As a matter of fact, the Concord, Mass., soldier, who has been named Fort Ord's "Outstanding Non-Commissioned Officer," seems to specialize in being "tops" in whatever he sets out to do.

He was the hospital's "Soldier of the Month" last June, and before that, was honor graduate of his class in the Clinical Specialist Course at the Medical Field Service School at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

The Vietnam veteran was also honor graduate of his basic combat training company, and in a recent class at the Fort Ord Chemical, Biological and Radiological training course, he was honor graduate.

Specialist Burr, who lives with his wife Penny at Fort Ord, was presented a Fort Ord Certificate of Achievement, and a $50 U.S. Savings Bond by Fort Ord's commander, Maj. Gen. Robert G. Gard, Jr. The award covered the period from February to September 1973.

'Outstanding Soldier' Named

Specialist Four Charles P. Lipari is Fort Ord's "Outstanding Soldier."

The 22-year-old soldier from Ventura, Calif., is company clerk in Company A, 2nd Battalion, 3rd Basic Combat Training Brigade, and was selected as "Outstanding Soldier" for the period from February to September 1973.

After presenting him with a Fort Ord Certificate of Achievement and a $50 U.S. Savings Bond, Maj. Gen. Robert G. Gard, Jr., told Specialist Lipari: "This award is a tribute to you ... and your unit."

Specialist Lipari has been in the Army since April, 1972, and completed basic training at Ford Ord in July of that year. He is a graduate of Buena High School in Ventura, and attended Ventura Junior College. He and his wife Judy, and their sons Dean and Scott, reside in Marina.

Fay Russo Exhibit At City Hall

The Seaside Art Commission is presenting a one-woman show of paintings by Faye Russo for the month of October.

She and her husband, Sal Russo, both natives of Monterey, are now making their home in Salinas. They have four children; Gerald 24, Virginia 21, Laurie 13, and Richard 9.

Her interest in art stems from her childhood. She has studied art at Monterey Peninsula College, Hartnell and San Jose State College. She is a member of the Salinas Fine Arts Club and her work has been exhibited throughout Salinas and at the Monterey County Fair. She enjoys working in many mediums, but prefers oils. Mrs. Russo's favorite subjects for her paintings are children and scenes within the Monterey Peninsula area.

The public is invited to view her work at the Seaside City Hall between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, from October 2nd to October 30th, 1973.

EEOC Moving Against Job Discrimination

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, with $9 million additional funds voted by the Congress, is moving against discrimination in state and local government employment and among private employers and unions.

Since the new law was enacted last year the EEOC has received 59,000 complaints and has filed 116 lawsuits according to Senator Allan Cranston (D, Calif.)

It has hired 220 new attorneys and established five Regional Litigation Centers, including one in San Francisco.

"Court decisions sought by the EEOC have found that some employment tests are unconstitutional and that wage garnishments and use of arrest records, seniority systems and word-of-mouth referrals also may be illegal," Cranston said.

"Other crucial EEOC court victories included the extension of bay pay awards to all in the affected discriminated-against class and the ordering of affirmative action plans, to name just two."

One settlement of a complaint against American Telephone and Telegraph involved compensation of $38 million for minority employees and provisions for new hiring and promotion policies that will improve minority employment in that company, Cranston said.

Cranston said that the Senate also has passed two new measures to assist Spanish-speaking employment: the Job Training and Community Services bill, including his provisions for bilingual job training, and extension of the Emergency Employment Act which also emphasizes minority employment.

"One of the biggest difficulties in job training for Americans with limited English language ability has been the lack of programs in which their primary language is used," Cranston said.

In response to the job training needs of the nation's more than 10 million Spanish-surnamed persons, Cranston said he authored an amendment to the Senate-passed Job Training and Community Services bill requiring all bilingual programs to meet certain standards.

The amendment provides comprehensive standards for training courses and materials in the trainees' primary language. It also provides for special training for instructors in federally-supported bilingual job training and placement programs, and calls for the development of specialized programs to encourage employers to hire people trained under bilingual programs.

In addition, the measure would promote training during evenings and weekends for Chicanos presently employed in sub-standard jobs.

"One of the major lessons we have learned during the last decade has been that job training programs must be linked to jobs," Cranston said. "All too frequently people are passed from one job training program to another--never actually achieving meaningful employment."

To answer this problem, Cranston said he wrote provisions requiring that priority in local training programs be given to training projects that have commitments from public and private employers to hire trainees who successfully complete the course of study.

A final provision requires, when such commitments have been made, that local units of government with Emergency Employment Act programs must either find jobs for those successfully completing training programs or hire the trainees directly.

Since the original act passed two years ago, 44,000 Californians have been employed under the program in the fields of education, law enforcement, hospital and health services, fire protection, public works, transportation, parks, recreation and improvement of the environment. Presently 19,424 Californians are You're never too old to yearn.

When you retire, you'll still want to take vacations.

When you retire, you'll still want to buy new clothes, have an occasional night out, drive a newer car, buy gifts, and be independent.

Will you be able to?

If you have your health there's only one thing that's going to keep you from living the way you want to. Lack of money.

That's where U.S. Savings Bonds come in. You can join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work right now. That way an amount you specify will be set aside from your paycheck and used to buy Bonds. It's an almost painless way to save, and before you know it, you'll have a sizeable nest egg built up for your retirement years.

At the expiration of each of the terms so provided for, a successor shall be appointed for a term of one year.

To aid the Mayor and City Council in selecting members for appointment a screening committee composed of three representatives from each high school and two representatives from each junior high school within the city may suggest qualified and interested persons eligible for appointment for each vacancy to be filled.

Vacancies in the commission occurring otherwise than by expiration of term shall be filled in the manner heretofore set forth for filling the unexpired term of the commissioner leaving the commission.

6-302 Membership; eligibility

No person shall be ineligible for membership on the commission by reason of race, sex, religion, or national origin. Any person between the ages of 13 through 21, residing in the City, Fort Ord, San City or Marina shall be eligible for membership.

ORDINANCE NO. 439
AN ORDINANCE IMPOSING A SALES AND USE TAX TO BE ADMINISTERED BY THE STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION AND PROVIDING PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS

The City Council of the City of Seaside does ordain as follows:

Section 1. SHORT TITLE. This ordinance shall be known as the Uniform Local Sales and Use Tax Ordinance.

Section 2. RATE. The rate of sales tax and use tax imposed by this ordinance shall be one percent.

Section 3. OPERATIVE DATE. This ordinance shall be operative on January 1, 1974.

Section 4. PURPOSE. The City Council hereby declares that this ordinance is adopted to achieve the following, among other, purposes, and directs that the provisions hereof be interpreted in order to accomplish those purposes:

(a) To adopt a sales and use tax ordinance which complies with the requirements and limitations contained in Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code;

(b) To adopt a sales and use tax ordinance which incorporates privisions identical to those of the Sales and Use Tax Law of the State of California insofar as those provisions are not inconsistent with the requirements and limitations contained in Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code;

(c) To adopt a sales and use tax ordinance which imposes a tax and provides a measure therefor that can be administered and collected by the State Board of Equalization in a manner that adapts itself as fully as practicable to, and requires the least possible deviation from the existing statutory and administrative procedures followed by the State Board of Equalization in administering and collecting the California State Sales and Use Taxes;

(d) To adopt a sales and use tax ordinance which can be administered in a manner that will, to the degree possible consistent with the provisions of Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, minimize the cost of collecting city sales and use taxes and at the same time minimize the burden of record keeping upon persons subject to taxation under the provisions of this ordinance.

Section 5. CONTRACT WITH STATE. Prior to the operative date this city shall contract with the State Board of Equalization to perform all functions incident to the administration and operation of this sales and use tax ordinance; provided, that if this city shall not have contracted with the State Board of Equalization prior to the operative date, it shall nevertheless so contract and in such a case the operative date shall be the first day of the first calendar quarter following the execution of such a contract rather than the first day of the first calendar quarter following the adoption of this ordinance.

Section 6. SALES TAX. For the privilege of selling tangible personal property at retail a tax is hereby imposed upon all retailers in the city at the rate stated in Section 2 of the gross receipts of the retailer from the sale of all tangible personal property sold at retail in this city on and after the operative date.

Section 7. PLACE OF SALE. For the purposes of this ordinance, all retail sales are consummated at the place of business of the retailer unless the tangible personal property sold is delivered by the retailer or his agent to an out-of-State destination or to a common carrier for delivery to an out-of-State destination. The gross receipts from such sales shall include delivery charges, when such charges are subject to the State sales and use tax, regardless of the place to which delivery is made. In the event a retailer has no permanent place of business in the State or has more than one place of business, the place or places at which the retail sales are consummated shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed and adopted by the State Board of Equalization.

Section 8. USE TAX. An excise tax is hereby imposed on the storage, use or other consumption in this city of tangible personal property purchased from any retailer on and after the operative date for storage, use or other consumption in this city at the rate stated in Section 2 of the sales price of the property. The sales price shall include delivery charges when such charges are subject to State sales or use tax regardless of the place to which deliver is made.

Section 9. ADOPTION OF PROVISIONS OF STATE LAW. Except as otherwise provided in this ordinance and except insofar as they are inconsistent with the provisions of Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, all of the provisions of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code are hereby adopted and made a part of this ordinance as though fully set forth herein.

Section 10. LIMITATIONS ON ADOPTION OF STATE LAW. In adopting the provisions of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, wherever the State of California is named or referred to as the taxing agency, the name of this City shall be substituted therefor. The substitution, however, shall not be made when the word "State" is used as part of the title of the State Controller, the State Treasurer, The State Board of Control, the State Board of Equalization, the State Treasury, or the Constitution of the State of California; the substitution shall not be made when the result of that substitution would require action to be taken by or against the City, or any agency thereof rather than by or against the State Board of Equalization, in performing the functions incident to the administration or operation of this ordinance; the substitution shall not be made in those sections, including, but not necessarily limited to, sections referring to the exterior boundaries of the State of California, where the result of the substitution would be to provide an exemption from this tax with respect to certain sales, storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property which would not otherwise be exempt from this tax while such sales, storage, use or other consumption remain subject to tax by the State under the provisions of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, or to impose this tax with respect to certain sales, storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property which would not be subject to tax by the State under the said provisions of that Code; the substitution shall not be made in Sections 6701, 6702 (except in the last sentence thereof), 6711, 6715, 6737, 6796 or 6828 of the Revenue and Taxation Code; and the substitution shall not be made for the work "State" in the phrase "retailer engaged in business in this State" in Section 6203 or in the definition of that phrase in Section 6203.

Section 11. PERMIT NOT REQUIRED. If a seller's permit has been issued to a retailer under Section 6067 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, an additional seller's permit shall not be required by this ordinance.

Section 12. EXCLUSIONS AND EXEMPTIONS. There shall be excluded from the measure of tax:

(a) The amount of any sales or use tax imposed by the State of California upon a retailer or consumer.

(b) The storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property, the gross receipts from the sale of which has been subject to sales tax under a sales and use tax ordinance enacted in accordance with Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code by any city and county, county, or city in this State.

(c) The gross receipts from sales to, and the storage, use or other consumption of property purchased by, operators of common carriers and water borne vessels to be used or consumed in the operation of such common carriers or waterborne vessels principally outside this city.

(d) The storage or use of tangible personal property in the transportation or transmission of persons, property or communications, or in the generation, transmission or distribution of electricity or in the manufacture, transmission or distribution of gas in intrastate, interstate or foreign commerce by public utilities which are regulated by the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California.

Section 13. EXCLUSIONS AND EXEMPTIONS.

(a) The amount subject to tax shall not include any sales or use tax imposed by the State of California upon a retailer or consumer.

(b) The storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property, the gross receipts from the sale of which have been subject to tax under a sales and use tax ordinance enacted in accordance with Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code by any city and county, county, or city in this State shall be exempt from the tax due under this ordinance.

(c) There are exempted from the computation of the amount of the sales tax the gross receipts from the sale of tangible personal property to operators of waterborne vessels to be used or consumed principally outside the city in which the sale is made and directly and exclusively in the carriage of persons or property in such vessels for commercial purposes.

(d) The storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property purchased by operators of waterborn vessels and used or consumed by such operators directly and exclusively in the carriage of persons or property of such vessels for commercial purposes is exempted from the use tax.
